

SPECIALISED CLEANING SOLUTIONS FOR THE HEALTHCARE SECTOR

THE CHALLENGE

Healthcare facilities are highly specialised, high-risk environments. Each area within the facility is classified as such based on its level of priority and requires a cleaning solution to meet each of its specific needs – with infection control and prevention as a primary focus. Our clients within a facility are both internal and external, and have varied expectations of cleaning standards that directly affect their overall healthcare experience.

OUR SOLUTION

With over 25 years of experience in healthcare, Tsebo Cleaning Solutions collaborates closely with major public and private facilities, providing tailored products and services to meet strict standards, applying expertise in infection control and cleaning techniques to prevent disease spread and promote health for patients, staff, and visitors through meticulous planning and methodology to prevent cross-contamination.

- We adopt a scientific approach supported by cutting-edge technologies, continuously updating methodologies and equipment to meet current and future needs.
- Our systemised processes ensure responsive service, immediate delivery, consistent high quality, and electronic reporting.
- Partnering with aligned suppliers and auditors drives continuous improvement.
- Infection Prevention Practices, benchmarked against CDC standards, are integrated into all SOPs, enabling rapid responses to emerging demands such as COVID-19.
- Our competent workforce, well-trained in infection prevention and customer service, ensures cleaning is patient-centric.
- Management's hands-on approach is supported by a robust electronic system.
- Solutions are customised based on premises layout, foot traffic, and unique cleaning needs.
- We prioritise environmentally friendly practices, actively promoting recycling for a sustainable future.
- Our specialised services include high-level window cleaning, floor restoration, carpet cleaning, and specialised disinfecting.
- Regular client communication ensures alignment with and exceeding of expectations.
- Our workforce development plans encompass soft skills and management training.
- Tsebo Hygiene Solutions offers a wide range of certified products, including PPE, sanitisers, and disinfectants effective against various pathogens.

SUMMARY

When you partner with Tsebo Cleaning Solutions you can rest assured that your facility will be cleaned and disinfected to the highest standards. Our supervisors and management perform daily quality checks to ensure staff adhere to our SOPs and preventive measures. We believe that people are our most important asset and focus on continuously growing and developing them to ensure our clients receive a great customer experience. Our service goes beyond cleaning for appearance alone and we deploy the best that science and technology have to offer – we call this the Science of Cleaning and Hygiene.
